

Vocabulary Lesson 4

The man was a bigot for only allowing white men into the nightclub.

The man wanted to expunge his terrible childhood from his mind and start a new life.

The honest child candidly told us the story of how she broke the vase.

The native people of Native American tribes speak their own argot so that no other person would know what they are saying.

The negligence of the boy while using scissors resulted in the kids at school to call him "Cyclops".

The man in pain was appeased by one dose of morphine but was later in more pain when he had access to no drugs.

The strident sound of fingernails on a chalkboard irritates most people.

The riot near the White House was chaotic and out of anyone's control.

The microscope augmented microscopic organisms so that they could be able to be seen by humans.

The man running for president had a jingoistic love for America but his war policies required the risk of thousands of lives.

1. E
2. B
3. E
4. B
5. A
6. C
7. E
8. B
9. B
10. C